

FALL FESTIVALS & EVENTS in FLORIDA!

Annual Central Florida Peanut Festival held every first Sat in October. Step back in time to a good old fashioned, home town festival in Williston, Florida. You won't want to miss the delicious food, assorted types of peanuts and peanut products like boiled peanuts, roasted peanuts, peanut brittle, and peanut butter pie. All day rides, entertainment, crafts, antique tractors will be waiting for you. A special Little Peanut King and Queen Pageant are planned, including a 'Baby Peanut' Contest that is just too cute for words. Children young and old will enjoy the petting zoo, pony rides and free grilled PB and J sandwiches while they last! The City of Williston's Heritage Park is where it all happens. For more information go to www.VisitLevy.com.

Florida High School Rodeo Association will host its annual FLORIDA HIGH SCHOOL RODEO at Horseman's Park Rodeo Arena, Williston, Florida every first Saturday in October. Come on out and help 'Spur' these young riders on to victory as they compete in all types of rodeo events. For more information go to www.VisitLevy.com.

Get your seafood appetites ready for the best Florida seafood around when this Gulf of Mexico island village host their CEDAR KEY SEAFOOD FESTIVAL, every October. This major event features well over 200 arts and crafts exhibits, and great local seafood like clams, oysters, shrimp and crab cakes. Seafood Parade starts at 11 am with entertainment at several places around town during the days and nights. Sponsored by the Cedar Key Lions Club. More information go to www.cedarkey.org

HIDDEN COAST PADDLING ADVENTURES-October will be held this year in one of the coastal communities of Levy or Dixie counties. This is open to the first 100 registered paddlers. HiddenCoastPaddlingAdventures.com

Coming up November every year in the 'Old Florida' coastal village of Yankeetown, Florida will hold their annual YANKEETOWN SEAFOOD & ART FESTIVAL. Come enjoy two days of festival atmosphere with plenty of seafood, entertainment and arts and crafts. Sponsored by the local Lions Club. For more information go to www.yankeetownseafoodfestival.com

